Water Supply Matter.

Justice Pratt To-Day Appoints a New Commission.

All the Testimony Will Now Be Heard Again.

Justice Pratt, of the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, this morning handed down an order setting aside the report of the ssioners of Appraisal in the matter of the Long Island Water Supply

He sets aside all acts of the old Commission, as if it never had existed. He appoints a new Commission, as John L. Hill, a well-known lawyer, of New York; Hugo Hirsch, also a lawyer and formerly leader of the Republican party in Kings County; Frederick Jansen, a director in several financial institutions in Brooklyn; Dr. William H. Bates, a prominent Brooklyn physician, and William Rapelje, one of the best known citizens of the Twenty-sixth Ward, the territory covered by the Long Island Water-Supply Company.

The Commissioners, whose report is set aside, are E. W. Bliss, Hiram W. Hunt, Edward M. Shepard, Edward Rowe and Charles E. Emery. Commissioners Bliss, Hunt and Shepard fixed $571,000 as a reasonable compensation for the plant and franchises. Commissioners Rowe and Emery presented a minority report fixing a value in the

In his order to-day Justice Pratt calls ttention to the fact that Edward B. Bartlett, one of the Commissioners ap-pointed June 7, 1892, resigned as did others who were then appointed, leaving the Commission presenting a report composed of E. W. Bliss, H. W. Hunt, E. M. Shepard, Edward Rowe and

Charles E. Emery.

After calling attention to the difference between the reports presented by the majority and the minority of the Comrission, Justice Pratt cites the fact that the Water Company petitioned that the report of the majority of the Commission be not confirmed, as it did not provide for an adequate compensation, and closes by saying:
